STATE COMMANDER URGES CONGRESS TO ACT ON "BONUS"

Armstrong Says Soldiers
Last to Receive Pay for Part in War

Urging united support of the Vinson Bill, commonly called the "Bonus" Act, now pending in Congress, State Commander Paul G. Armstrong of the American Legion has issued a statement in which he declares that all citizens should have a clear understanding of the so-called bonus act. Commander Armstrong directs attention to the fact that while the government settled promptly and in full with contractors, railroad and civilian employees, the soldiers were granted permission to wait twenty years for compensation for performing the most arduous and dangerous part of the world war. Because the soldiers have asked for their pay which the large majority so urgently need, the Legionnaires have been referred to as "Treasury Robbers," the Commander says.

The state commander's statement follows:

"It is necessary that all of the citizens understand that the so-called 'Bonus' Act, which should properly be called the Adjusted Compensation Act, never originated in a meeting of the American Legion of in any other Veterans' organization, but, in fact, originated in the halls of Congress in 1919, while thousands of us were still in the uniform. The Congress was busily engaged in passing Adjusted Compensation Bills in the interests of various individuals and corporations, having passed bills, one of which was in the interests of over seven thousand contractors who had been making munitions and supplies for the Federal Government and the total amount involved was over three billions of dollars. These contracts contained, I understand, cancellation clauses, without recourse, so that the government could cancel them on the termination of the war, but the Congressmen did not desire these people to lose anything by virtue of this cancellation so they adjusted their pay as of the date of the contract, with six per cent interest up to the date of payment. They adjusted the pay of the railroad in the same manner, in upwards of two billions of dollars. Then they adjusted the pay of certain civilian employees of the Federal government. In the average amount of $240.00 per person per year. Some of these individuals, a certain class of employees, received in a lump sum payment larger than the average amount of the face value of the certificates given to the veterans, which was $1050.00. At the time this law was in effect, approximately nine

He was a graduate of the Antioch Township High School in the class of 1925, and of Lewis Institute in Chicago. Since he was graduated he has been employed by the traffic department of the Illinois Bell Telephone company in Chicago.

Soule, who preceded her in death about five years ago lived at Grass Lake. Later they moved to Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Returning to this locality some years later they again lived on the farm until his retirement ten years ago when they moved to Antioch, residing on Park avenue.

SPEAKERS FOR TAXPAYERS WILL SCORE HIGH TAX

Neighboring Taxpayers Association Announces Mass Meeting for Mar. 26

Announcement is made of a mass meeting to be held in the auditorium of the Senior High School in Waukegan on Tuesday evening, March 26, at eight o'clock, under the auspices of the Neighboring Taxpayers Association of Lake county.

Competent speakers will be present to discuss the question of taxes from every standpoint, and sponsors of the meeting declare that "a partial record of the willful, wanton operations" of certain county office holders will be reviewed.

The Association officials declare themselves as openly opposed to the re-election of certain supervisors, and promise to lay bare the records of these officials they allege are responsible for the waste of county funds that has cost the county millions of dollars during the last 25 years. The actions of the boards of review and the $1,250,000 road bond issue will also come in for severe criticism at the hands of the speakers, it was announced.

Every taxpayer in Lake county is invited to attend the meeting.

STATE OWES SCHOOLS OF COUNTY $175,662

Deficit for Antioch Grade School District Is $1575

Schools in Lake County have, overdue and in default from the state common school fund, a total of $175,662. The state still owes to Lake County $705,800.52 on the distribution for 1931, 1932, and 1933. This shortage is caused chiefly by delinquencies in Cook county on state taxes formerly levied on property.

For the Antioch Grade School district, this represents a deficiency of $1575.69 for the years 1931, 1932, and 1933, according to the local Board of Education.

Adding insult to injury, so to speak, Cook county, which is the primary cause of more than half of the trouble, is the only county in Illinois that has no important sum due from the state school fund formerly raised by property tax.

Cook county got most of "its" ahead of all other counties by the clever expedient of getting its warrants, or orders, "in full" from the state and deducting most of its state school fund before turning over its tax collections to the state. This was done in spite of the fact that Cook county has been a full year behind other parts of the state in tax payments.

Other counties, following the precedent of established custom, turned their tax collections over to the state expecting, as a matter of routine, checks back for their share. The share didn't come.

On top of this comes a second deficiency. The state is running eight months late on its state school fund paid out on the sales tax. It is delinquent $7,000,000 and Lake county's share of this, should be $70,062.20. These two sums make the total of $175,662.72 due Lake county.

This deficiency, for the Antioch Grade School District, amounts to $1575.69.

The local grade school district has received up to and including February, 1935, from the gas tax diversion to the schools, beginning in August, 1934, a total of $203.94. This represents seven monthly payments.

No bill has yet appeared in the legislature to comply with the recommendation that the gas tax diversion be extended for four months. Unless such a bill is passed the schools will be deprived of this source of revenue after this month.

The state of New York has a state distributive fund of $110,000,000. Our distributive fund in Illinois has been 10 1/2 millions of dollars, a considerable portion of which the state has failed to pay.

A state wide movement is on foot to induce the legislature to pay this part which is unpaid and to increase the yearly amount to $30,000,000.

It is the belief of school officials that taxpayers are coming to the realization that local tax burdens can be lightened if the state legislature will appropriate a greater part of the huge state revenue to the local school districts.

THE WASHINGTON CIRCUS

Ordinarily, a visitor to Washington, D. C., has no trouble in getting a look at the United States Senate in action. During the sessions, the galleries are always half empty, unless a piece of legislation of exceptional importance is in debate, and the few visitors present often find themselves overcome by boredom within a short time.

Matters are very different now. If you want to attend the Senate, you have to go early in the morning and wait. By the time roll-call is announced, the galleries are jammed and hundreds of disappointed people must be turned away by the doorkeepers.

This change isn't due to a rising interest on the part of citizens in serious questions of government. Nor is it due to Senatorial achievement, which might automatically bring in admiring thousands who want to watch their elected officials keep the wheels of government moving. It is due, instead, to the fact that the present session has turned itself into a first-class road show, admission free. Various called the "greatest deliberative body" and the "most exclusive men's club" in the world, the Senate has temporarily, in the words of one Washington correspondent, "degenerated into a show, a circus, a brawl."

The Senate has been sitting for more than two months—and not a single piece of legislation of national importance has been either passed or defeated. On the floor members are fighting among themselves, are quarreling over the pettiest of matters. There haven't been any fist fights yet, but they seem just in the offing.

This may be pleasing to that minority of the American electorate which likes to watch a brawl and a circus. It isn't at all pleasing to other citizens, either for or against the present Administration, who want to see things done. We are living in a critical time, and are at the crossroads between continued depression and recovery—and the Senate, at least to all appearance, is devoting its talents to personal bickering. Recent newspaper comment has been extremely bitter whenever the Senate at large is spoken of.

At this writing, the emergency spending bill has not yet come to a vote, may not for a week or more. The future of the NRA is in the laps of the gods. And all the signs say that, when the President's social security program comes up for consideration, fireworks even more spectacular than those of the past week will flare. It looks as if every Senator had a social security program of his own, which is at variance with those of his colleagues.

This is, of course, embarrassing to the Administration, whose whole recovery and relief program is at stake. It is equally embarrassing to sincere opponents of the Administration, who know that the voting public is not going to be swayed by the kind of criticism which confines itself to the calling of names. Patriotic Republicans and Democrats alike are shaking their heads sadly and waiting for the Senate to get back to work in a dignified fashion.

As for the future trend of legislation, it is certain that the NRA as we know it now, will not be continued. The President's recommendations to Congress asked for considerable modification of the law. Now Senator Borah, who carries much weight with Congressmen of both parties, has announced that he will demand that the NRA be junked, save the retention of wage, working hours and child labor provisions. General Johnson has said that the NRA is "dead as a dodo," and famed lawyer Clarence Darrow, who has support of millions of consumers whose battle he is fighting, is preparing to add his voice to those who hold that the NRA amounts, in effect, to a racket, whereby business is given governmental sanction to overcharge and otherwise sting the public.

Best opinion holds that the social security program, when finally made into law, will be more liberal than the President wants, but will be less liberal than demands by advocates of the Townsend plan, who believe that the road to recovery would be at once turned into a super-highway if the government gave $200 a month to all persons past 60.

The chances are that the $4,000,000,000 work relief President wants. But anything may happen. The bill will eventually be passed in just about the form the

SEE BETTER BUSINESS DESPITE DEPRESSION

Business is definitely better than at this time last year. Practically every industry is increasing sales, earning moderately higher profits. Complete figures for January show that the index of industrial production was at the highest January level since 1930.

The fact remains, however, that in the view of many competent observers, fundamental conditions are unchanged, and all that is keeping us going is government spending.

It is true that 10,000,000 men are out of work, are being supported by relief—about the same number that was unemployed two years ago, when the great recovery drive started. That is the most ominous fact the country faces now.

Locally, Antioch merchants, realtors and others engaged in catering to the needs of the public, are viewing with optimism the prospect of a better seasonal business during the coming months. It is pointed out that numerous inquiries indicate renewed activity in real estate. Then, too, the closing of the Century of Progress Exposition, which for two years was regarded as direct competition to the chain of lakes vacation region, is good news in this community.

In the immediate locality conditions are unchanged, and whatever increased buying power is felt in the community must come from the outside. For this reason vacation patronage will be sought, and the stranger within our gates will find more adequate facilities than have been available in the past.

"Trying to force recovery by statute is like standing up in a sailboat and blowing on the sails. The speed of the boat is determined by forces outside it."—Neil Carothers, Professor of Economics, Lehigh University.

The Penny Post

The Penny Post was an institution transplanted from London by Benjamin Franklin soon after he was appointed one of the two deputy postmasters for the Colonies in 1753, and, like its London counterpart, had grown up in the post office hut, strictly speaking, was not a government function. The main difference between the two was that in London the profits from the local post were assigned to a court favorite, while in America they were the prerogative of the individual postmasters or the carriers whom the latter might appoint.

Modern and Classical Greek
There is some difference between modern and ancient Greek. The vocabulary has changed by the intrusion of loan words from other languages, notably Italian and Turkish, though the infusion has not been so great as to give the language the appearance of a mixed language. After the establishment of the Greek kingdom, in 1830, there was a stronger movement toward the purification of the modern language and a closer conformity to the ancient Greek idiom.

City Named for Vice President
The only Vice President of the United States to enjoy the distinction of having a large city named in his honor was George Mifflin Dallas, who was President Polk's running mate in 1844. Later he was appointed by President Buchanan minister to England. He was the able son of an able father, Alexander James Dallas, secretary of the treasury under James Madison—Cincinnati Enquirer.

PIPE LINE FOLLOWS OLD CARAVAN TRAIL

Taps Wells in Mosul Field in Northern Iraq.

Washington.—One of the world's largest oil pools—the Mosul field, in northern Iraq, where ancient Assyrians stood in awe before burning rocks—now is linked directly with the Mediterranean sea by one of the world's most spectacular pipe lines.

"On a map of the Near East this newest of trade routes looks like a huge letter 'Y,' because it is really a double pipe line," says the National Geographic society. "Both tubes begin at Kirkuk, in northern Iraq; but 155 miles to the west, near the little desert village of Haditha, the two pipe lines split. One pipe strikes nearly due west 570 miles to Tripoli, in the French mandate of Syria; the other runs southwest along an old caravan trail 403 miles to Haifa, in British-controlled Palestine.

More than 15,000 workmen have been engaged for nearly three years on this huge enterprise, constructed by American, British and French engineers. Although there are longer pipe lines in the United States, none of them has been laid under the difficult conditions that faced the builders of the Iraq-Mediterranean project.

Through Barren Deserts. "Barren unpeopled deserts, differences in altitude from more than a half mile above sea level to 850 feet below sea level, wandering bands of hostile tribesmen, total lack of railroads for transport, and only desert tracks for the huge motor trucks carrying the pipe—these are a few of the problems faced by the men on the job.

"Under a concession obtained from the Iraq government, all companies of four nations—the United States, France, the Netherlands and Great Britain—will share the profits of the enterprise. The new line is of greatest importance to France, which has no oil of its own.

"The Mosul oil field, source of the thick black fluid which will pour through the new line and into the holds of tank ships at Haifa and at Tripoli, is a rectangular area about ten miles long and two miles wide, a short distance northwest of Kirkuk. Prospecting is still going on, and new wells are being sunk at regular intervals. The oil is piped from wells to the trunk line, and powerful pumps push it along the first stage of its journey. The big tubes pass under both the historic Tigris and Euphrates rivers, and then strike out into the dusty desert, a desolate region inhabited by nomadic tribes.

"The northern and southern lines branch off at the village of Haditha. The northern line passes close to the ruins of Zenobia's desert capital, Palmyra, and thence over a mountain range 2,600 feet high to the valley of the Euphrates south of Hama. It reaches the Mediterranean three miles north of Chantant Raymond, of Crusader fame, joining the port of Tripoli. Follows Old Trade Routes.

"The southern section passes wholly through territory under British mandate after leaving Iraq. From Haditha it continues southwest to the high-walled stockade of famous Tubbah Wells, where travelers by airplane, motor car, and even mule, follow the old trade routes between East and West often halt for fuel, food, or lodging. Here halts, too, the pointed Damascus-to-Bagdad pullman bus, which, with its 65 feet of length, its 18 wheels, with its buffet and bathroom, represents the largest motorized transport in the world. Its Diesel engines consume the crude product of the Mosul field.

"In Trans-Jordan, the southern section traverses the lava country, one of the most desolate regions in the world, consisting of lava boulders and rocks, with many extinct volcanoes and only the sparsest of vegetation. Thence it crosses the famous pilgrim railroad which leads toward Mecca, and descends into the valley of the Jordan. In 18 miles the pipe line drops from 2,700 feet above sea level to 850 feet below, presenting perhaps the greatest problem in pipe line construction to the history of crude oil transportation. After crossing the highly-cultivated plain of Esdrumel the line reaches the sea on the Bay of Acre, near the spot where the Crusaders made their last stand against Saladin and his Saracens, a few miles north of the modern port of Haifa.

"To keep the thick oil in motion from Kirkuk to the sea there are 12 powerful pumping stations, their positions depending upon the lie of the land. A revolving pipe cleaner is used to free the inside of the big tubes from debris. At certain points valves can be opened, the cleaner inserted, and then driven to the next valve by heavy pressure.

"The annual throughput of the double line is expected to be about 1,000,000 tons. The pipe line will eventually pay for itself, saving both time and expense of ships which once had to sail around the Arabian peninsula, and, in addition, pay duties at the Suez canal."

Oregon Flats Agate Beds Newport, Ore.—Recent high tides uncovered the best agate beds that have appeared here in several years at this season.

Canal to Gulf Planned Brownsville, Texas.—A 10-foot deep water canal connecting Brownsville with the Gulf of Mexico will be dug here this winter.

LAKE VILLA

The benefit dance sponsored by the women of Lake Villa was well attended last Saturday night and a splendid time was enjoyed. Monte Hinton's orchestra furnished the music. Costumes of the dancers were varied and some were beautiful. Among the prize-winners were Miss Wells of Druce Lake and Homer La Plant of Antioch.

Mrs. Reinebach and Mrs. Eugene Sheehan were Waukegan visitors last Friday.

O. H. Stratton was in Waukegan Tuesday on business.

Edward Leonard was in Chicago on Tuesday to attend to business connected with his law office there.

Miss Vivien Bonner of Millburn was in our village on business Monday.

Isaac Stacker of Chicago was out Sunday looking after his interests here. He is having improvements made on his cottage at Cedar Lake.

Frank Nader who has been ill for several weeks went to the Sacred Heart Sanitarium at Milwaukee for treatment last Thursday. Fred Hamilton and Dr. Gindich accompanied him.

Mrs. Anna Belek who has been with her brother, Frank Nader and family for the winter, is now with her niece, Mrs. Fred Hamilton.

Carl Nader, Delbert Sherwood and Tony Sciacero, who are in CCG at Glenview, spent Sunday with their parents here.

Jack Stratton has been quite ill for the past ten days or two weeks.

T. B. Rhoades and Jack, who have been at their cottage at Minong, Wis., for several weeks, returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. Carl Seeger and daughter, Florence, were Kenosha visitors on Wednesday last week.

Mrs. Stella Pedersen was hostess for her bridge club at her home last Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. Maler, Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Joe Hucker were winners of prizes.

Mrs. Lester Hamlin and children spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Arthur Nauta in Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr accompanied Mr. and Mrs. William Weber, Jr. to Chicago last Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell. Their other children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kerr of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kerr and family of Bloomington were also present to help them celebrate the forty-eighth anniversary of their marriage. We want to add our congratulations to this couple who have been so happily married for so long a time, for in these days of divorce and separation, it is indeed refreshing to find such a couple.

Mrs. Irving Barnstable is much improved in health and is able to be out.

J. G. Poulton visited relatives at Diamond Lake on Sunday.

The minstrel show which was given as one in the series of Band-box plays, will be repeated at the school-house on Thursday evening for the benefit of the building fund of Millburn church.

On next Sunday evening, the final family will give a concert at the church. This talented group, composed of father, mother and daughter, play fourteen musical instruments, besides singing and yodeling. They come very highly recommended and the public is invited. A silver offering will be received.

New Volumes at Library Hold Present Day Interest

Those who follow the movements of the present government will find two books of enormous interest at the Public Library. They are "New Frontiers" by our prolific Secretary of Agriculture, Henry A. Wallace, and "The Challenge to Liberty" by Herbert Hoover.

"New Frontiers" is devoted to an outline of present day economics and to explanations of the Administration's aims and policies. Mr. Wallace reviews our change of status from a debtor nation to the world's largest creditor and shows why and how our economic policy must be changed to meet the changed position in international finance. The problems of the farmer and the methods being used to solve them are also discussed. The book is, of course, favorable to the Roosevelt Administration.

Mr. Hoover's book takes quite the reverse view of the situation. "The Challenge to Liberty" is, however, entirely preoccupied with the political trends of the day. He is frankly alarmed at the concentration of power in the Executive and parallels the delegation of power to Mr. Roosevelt with the dictatorships of Europe. The book is, in reality, a critical essay and contains much food for thought.

The Antioch Public Library is open from 3:00 P. M. to 5:30 P. M. Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Weird Animals on Islands

On the Galapagos islands, there still exist extraordinary animal forms that attracted Darwin's attention, such as birds that do not fly, turtles weighing hundreds of pounds that never go near the water, sea bats with wingspreads of 30 feet, dragons that rear their lengths in the air and walk on their hind legs, wild goats who enjoy drinking salt water, and a host of other equally weird animals.

FORECLOSURE

We usually associate the word "foreclosure" with real estate mortgages. The word "foreclosure" itself means "barring out"; to shut off or cut off the rights of someone. Although it is most commonly heard in connection with real estate mortgages, foreclosures take place on other matters than real estate mortgages. There can be foreclosures on automobiles, household goods, and various other personal property, usually covered by a chattel mortgage. Then there are also mechanic lien foreclosures where a person furnishing labor or materials to be used on some real estate, may enforce his claim as a lien against the real estate. Of course, there is a different procedure employed in each instance. In connection with a foreclosure of a mortgage or mechanic's lien, the law allows the owner of the real estate the right to pay up all the indebtedness and costs and thus recover or regain the property. The repayment of money due under foreclosure is called in law "redemption." The law allows a period of one year for the owner to make a redemption, the period of one year beginning to run from the date of the sale of the property by the Court. There is a further or additional period of three (3) months allowed for creditors to make a redemption, making a total period of fifteen (15) months from the date of sale that the complete loss of the property may be averted. If no redemption is made, then the Court directs a Master in Chancery to make and deliver a deed to the purchaser of the foreclosed property, which deed is absolute, and gives complete ownership of the property to the purchaser.

There is considerable confusion and misunderstanding in the minds of many people that the right to redeem also includes the right to retain possession of the real estate during the pendency of the foreclosure proceedings. This is not true, as the Court has the right to appoint a Receiver and compel the owner of property to pay rent or vacate the same, and although an owner of real estate may be ejected from it, it does not affect his right to come in within twelve (12) months after the sale, and pay up his indebtedness to get back his property. It should be mentioned here that there is one form of foreclosure which the lawyers call "strict foreclosure." Although rarely employed, yet it is available under certain circumstances, whereby the court has a right to cut off the right of redemption at the time of the sale and thus deprive the owner of any further interest in his real estate for all time. This form of procedure is employed on occasions where the property may have been abandoned, or is of such little value that the holder of the mortgage will sustain a loss, or is completely insolvent.

In the next issue we shall take up the question of Limitations.

This Week in Washington

by RALPH E. CHURCH

Washington, D. C., March 16—One hundred and twenty boys of the Congressional District were authorized to take the Civil Service examination on Saturday, March 16th, for appointment to the United States Naval Academy. The examination is of the same character as that given by the Navy Department for admission after the appointment has been made. It covers the following subjects: Algebra, Plane Geometry, English Composition and Literature, United States History, Ancient History and Physics.

The appointment of a principal and three alternates will be made on April 1st and on April 17th the Navy Department will examine the appointees. In order to qualify for admission the appointees must satisfy the mental and physical requirements of the Department.

Each Congressional District has three Midshipmen at the Academy. Whenever a vacancy occurs the Representative of the District is called upon to make an appointment. In this instance one of the Midshipmen assigned to the 10th Illinois Congressional District resigned.

The next vacancy is scheduled to occur in 1937, at which time one of the Midshipmen credited to the District will graduate. However, there may be opportunity for appointment prior to that time, in that there is a bill pending in Congress allowing an additional Midshipman at the Academy for each District.

contact and interview the proper officials.

Every effort is made to give each individual letter, regardless of how small the request or how important, as prompt attention as possible. The great volume in the past week has necessitated some delay, although my office has been open every evening.

Hundreds of letters were received on the matter of the repeal of the provision in the Revenue Act of 1934 for the public use of income tax returns. This provision (Section 55-B) was known as the "plink-alp" law. On Monday, March 12th, the House passed a bill repealing the Section or "plink-alp" provision and it now awaits action by the Senate.

Hundreds of letters have also been received protesting against the so-called Rayburn Bill pertaining to public utility holding companies. The Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce is still having hearings on the bill.

On Tuesday, March 12th, with only two members of Congress voting in the negative, Congressman Walter G. Andrews of New York and Congressman Schuyler Morrill of Connecticut, the House passed the bill authorizing the Home Owners' Loan Corporation to raise additional funds in the amount of $1,750,000,000 by a corporation bond issue. This amount is calculated to be sufficient only to take care of pending applications with the Corporation.

Congressman Andrews proposed an amendment to the bill to the effect that in the selection and promotion of employees of the Corporation there shall be no partisan political test but that it shall be solely a matter of merit. By a vote of 109 to 292 the amendment was defeated. The division was virtually along party lines, with the Republicans favoring the amendment and the Democrats opposing.

The report of the Civil Service Commission shows that altogether, inside and outside the District of Columbia, there were 673,273 persons in the civil executive branch of the Government of December 31, 1934.

AMUSEMENTS

New Song Hits First in "Roberta"

Two new hit songs are introduced in "Roberta," RKO-Radio's musical romance starring Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, opening at the Kenosha Theatre next Saturday.

The two new numbers are in addition to the best of the Jerome Kern hits of the original stage show, which have been retained in the picture.

"Lovely to Look At," a romantic ballad sung by Miss Dunne, with an octette from Astaire's dance band joining in; and "I Won't Dance," a snappy "hot" number, sung by Astaire and Miss Rogers and danced by Astaire; are the new songs.

Original songs from the stage show include the hauntingly lively "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and "Touch of Your Hand."

True Western Drama Is Offering at the Crystal Friday Night

"The Phantom Trail," a story of the Ozark mountains and a true western comedy drama will be the offering of the Rotunour Players at the Crystal theatre this Friday night. The play has been leased to Mr. Rotunour for his circuit. You'll between acts will be introduced by Miss Wellman, David Reese and the quartet.

Next week will be presented a story of the great Congo district, "Hel's Port." J. B. says this play is different from any other, with its colorful characters and special stage settings. Get free tickets from Antioch merchants as usual. The last performance of the company here will be on April 5th.

"Follies" at the Genesee Sunday

After a two year run in Chicago, the "Chez Paree Follies," with a cast of 40 Continental entertainers, will be the stage attraction at the Genesee Theatre Sunday, March 24th.

After two seasons at Chicago's most noted night club, the Chez Paree, the show was enlarged and presented on the stage at some of Chicago's largest theatres and enjoyed an extended run of nearly two months. At the end of this engagement the producers decided to road-show the attraction, and a coast to coast tour has been arranged.

According to advance announcements, the show consists of twelve scenes, ten vaudeville acts, a chorus of the Chez Paree adorables, sixteen of Chicago's most beautiful dancing girls. More than 275 costumes are carried by the company it was revealed.

Among the scenes are "Montmartre at Midnight," "Smoke Ballet," "La Vie Paree," "Underworld of Paris," and "Bal Des Beaux Arts." Among the acts are the celebrated Clymas Troupe; Baha LaVelle, Three Byrons, Lewis & Van, Benny Strang, Chere Meribelle; and the Chez Paree Adorables. All except the Adorables are graduates of Paris and London Theatre and cafe entertainment establishments.

Four complete stage and screen shows starting at 1:30 will be offered Sunday. Regular Sunday bargain prices will prevail.

The screen attraction, "Car 99," is a thrilling drama of the adventures of a State Police Department. Fred MacMurray, Ann Sheridan and Sir Guy Standing head a brilliant cast to make this a most entertaining picture.

In Washington itself there were 94,050 persons on Uncle Sam's pay roll. The figure, however, does not include the legislative, judicial and military branches of the Federal Government. This includes the employees of the "alphabet agencies," although the positions in these agencies do not come under the Civil Service.

Founding of Cleveland

Cleveland was founded in July, 1796, by surveyors from Connecticut, who represented another company, which had bought a strip of land along Lake Erie. This land, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, had been claimed by Connecticut by right of its old British charter, but it had relinquished rule over it to the federal government and had sold the land to the Connecticut Land company. The company, in turn, resold farms and town lots to people in Connecticut, New York and elsewhere, and these settled in the city and the region around it.

The Ace of Spades

The ace of spades was called Spadille for the games of ombre and quadrille, and was used as an ingredient, together with two adders, twenty-four spiders, seven toads, and a ewe lamb's heart, for the concoction said to have assisted the Corsican witch to foresee Napoleon's career.—Pearson's Weekly.

Singing Mice

There are a few species of mice including the well-known house variety in which some of the individuals are capable of making sounds similar to the songs of certain birds (chirping, twittering, etc.). The "song" resembles the faint warbling of a canary.

Escalloped Canned Corn

Butter baking dish, sprinkle in a thin layer cracker crumbs. Cover with a layer of canned corn, sprinkle with salt, pepper and another layer of crumbs. Dot crumbs with butter, and season. Cottage Cheese Club Sandwiches

This sandwich is made of three good sized slices of graham bread toasted on one side only.

Spread the toaster side of one of the slices thickly with cottage cheese mashed fine.

Put together with another slice buttered on the untoasted side and spread with minced celery.

Butter the untoasted side of the third slice and put together with an equal amount of finely chopped walnuts and raisins mixed with enough butter to spread.

Put the sandwich together, having top and bottom slices with the toasted side out.

The sandwich is cut diagonally across and served on individual plates with the halves arranged in diamond shape.

Cut the bread immediately after toasting, as otherwise the pressure of cutting crushes out the cheese and spoils the appearance of the sandwich. The cut slices may be placed together again while being filled and the filling may be sliced through with a sharp knife.

You'll have good luck next time you bake.

2 teaspoons baking powder

(Use 4 cups of flour and add another if necessary.) Leave in a cold place several hours, or overnight. Roll out very thin, cut in fancy shapes, sprinkle with granulated sugar and press strips of almond on top before baking. Bake in a moderate oven about 6 minutes, or until golden brown. ## OUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

Home Work

Once upon a time I was unalterably opposed to home work for elementary school children. Even the slightest amount of it aroused my indignation. I spoke against it at every opportunity. Indeed, I wrote an article unfavorable to home work for the school year.

This isn't a confession of a change of heart, but rather an admission that I hadn't analyzed the situation quite far enough. It was a school principal, a good friend of mine, who pointed out the weak spot. As a matter of fact this principal would oppose the old idea of home work as readily as I do. I know that is true because she is opposed to home work as a substitute for school work. We both agree that evening work at home shouldn't be so many hours tacked onto the school day.

But she pointed out to me this philosophy: Children like to be active. But if the home isn't interesting, if there isn't family unity for an evening of games and music, if parents turn to their own desires, what becomes of the children and this irresistible urge to do something? Many, of course, beg to go out after supper. Older children easily acquire the "corner" habit. They seek excitement and adventure. Or they must have the movies. That is enough to call to mind the well known problem.

If the home isn't interesting, more so than the movie or the gang, can't the school provide something? And there's the answer. Interesting books to be read; art posters to be sketched; collections to put in order; science questions to answer; and things to make. The list can be long. It gives the child something worth while to do. It uses energy; it takes those troublesome hours. And there is educational value. It's a new type of home work and in many instances decidedly worth while.

What may we substitute today for the rugged life of our ancestors? Dr. Ireland will answer next week.

My Favorite Recipes

Frances Lee Horton says:

EVERY study your youngster when he's polishing up the last morsel of something awfully good?

His chubby little hand grips the spoon with mighty determination and the world can go by unheeded. It's a pretty satisfying sort of like a medal for the time we spend in our kitchens. Here's one of those "awfully good" recipes—a pudding that's warm and filling, not too sweet, but sweet enough to be a real dessert.

Apricot Jam Pudding

3 slices white bread; butter; 1/2 cup apricot jam; 2 eggs, slightly beaten; 1 tablespoon sugar; dash of salt; 3 cups milk, scalded; 1/4 cup shredded coconut.

Remove crusts from bread; spread with butter and jam and cut each slice in half. Line bottom and sides of greased baking dish with bread. Combine eggs, sugar, and salt; add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Pour over bread. Place dish in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes; then sprinkle coconut over top of pudding and continue baking 15 to 20 minutes, or until done. Serves 6.

Navy Uses Much Tin

Tin is a strategic material in the United States navy. It is necessary to the proper maintenance and operation of the navy in time of war. The principal items needed by the navy which require tin for their manufacture are containers for food, grease, and oil; brass for bolts, nuts, screws, rivets, pipe, valve and flanges; solder and anti-friction bearing metals; manganese bronze and condenser tubes; airplanes and other implements of naval warfare.

The First Opera in Public

Until the Seventeenth century composers had employed various instruments, but merely to accompany vocal recitative. The first opera performed in public was Peri's Euridice in 1596 and was scored for lute, harpsichord, theorbo, lyre and lutes.

Tia-Producing Countries

The main tin-producing countries of the world are British Malaya, Bolivia, Siam, the Netherlands East Indies, British Nigeria, China and the Belgian Congo. The two little islands of Banca and Billiton in the Netherlands East Indies are among the largest tin producers.

Canals in Africa

Canals were not known in Africa until the nineteenth century.

Vegetables to be eaten in their raw state are dipped quickly into boiling water to destroy any germ and put in cheesecloth and placed directly on the ice, their crispness will be preserved.

That hard and dry paint brushes can be cleaned if soaked in hot vinegar for an hour.

Ink stains can be removed from the fingers if rubbed with the inside of a banana peel.

Yellowed lace can be restored to original freshness if immersed in sour milk, allowed to simmer for a few minutes and afterwards washed in the usual way.

Some Basic Soups

IN shivery weather like this, a steaming hot soup is one of the best bases for delicious soups. That's good, alliteration, but not half as good as some of the soups which we are going to suggest. Here they are:

Cream of Corn Supreme: Simmer the contents of one can corn, one-half cup celery, one slice onion and two cups water together for twenty minutes. Rub through a sieve. Add to two cups thin white sauce and season highly with salt and pepper. Just before serving, add one slightly beaten egg mixed with one cup cream, and heat in double boiler. Serve in bouillon cups with a spoonful of whipped cream on top. Serves eight.

Corn and Lettuce Soup: Sauté one cup shredded lettuce in two tablespoons butter until it starts to brown. Add one cup creamy corn and cook gently for five minutes more. Add three cups scalded milk to one cup hot mashed potatoes, add to corn, and season to taste with salt and pepper. Blend with a little flour if desired thicker. Serves six.

Made with Mushrooms

Cream of Corn and Mushroom Soup: Cook the contents of an 11-ounce can corn, three cups milk, one large sliced onion, one small stalk celery and one bay leaf in a double boiler for fifteen minutes, then strain. Cut fine the mushrooms from a 4-ounce can, add to the soup and stir smooth. Add the mushroom liquor slowly, stirring till thick and creamy. Add to the hot milk mixture and cook again till smooth and creamy. Season to taste with salt and pepper, and add one-half cup cream. Serve in cups. Serves six.

Odd Beliefs

Millions of Americans who are otherwise intelligent still believe that fish is a brain food, that they harm a watch by turning its hands backward, and that rats through some instinct always desert a ship before it starts on an ill-fated voyage.—Collier's Weekly.

Cause of Static

Static is a natural atmospheric interference. It is caused by stray, natural electrical discharges, traveling through the same medium. It is more prevalent by day than by night and far more troublesome in summer than in winter.

Birds and Animals Per Acre

One bird per acre and about one deer per 20 acres are about the limit of these wildlife species that can be accommodated in various areas for the best welfare of the animals and birds themselves. Science Service states.

Derivation of Hauristic

Hauristic is derived from a Greek word meaning ingenious. The method induces the pupil to find out things for himself, using his own initiative.

Farm Inventory Is Guide to Business

All Equipment and Livestock Should Be Listed for Tax Purposes.

By N. T. Hurdick, Economics Department, Colorado College of Agriculture, WNU Service.

Can you give a complete list of all the machinery, live stock, supplies and property that you own?

A complete inventory of your property will prove a valuable aid in answering this question, and in helping to plan for needed repair or replacement of equipment.

Inventories may save money, too. A complete check may show that the tax assessor has listed you for too much property. All business men need to know the facts about their equipment and holdings, and farmers are no exception.

Do you know how much feed of various kinds it takes to carry each class of live stock through the winter? If not, now is a good time to make some careful estimates. Find out just how much feed is on hand, and you can tell how much you will have to buy or may have for sale. You will have some valuable information to help you in planning ahead.

A complicated set of record books is not necessary for taking a farm inventory. The simplest form of pocket notebook is better than nothing. The inventory and other farm records and accounts can be kept in a book supplied by the college extension service. The important thing is to get the information written down, and a notebook that can be slipped in the pocket.

Farmers are urged to adopt the inventory habit and assemble information about the farm. It pays to study what you are doing, and it pays to plan ahead.

Cold Frame Is Advised for Early Vegetables

The construction of a cold frame will be a big help in the growing of early vegetables, says E. B. Morrow, extension horticulturist at North Carolina State college.

At small expense, he says, a cold frame can be prepared to protect the young vegetables until they have become comparatively hardy and until the coldest weather has passed.

The frame should be located on the southern or eastern slope of a hill, when possible, to protect it from the north winds and to give the plants the best exposure to the sunlight. Bank dirt around the northern and western sides of the frame to an additional protection.

A frame is what the name implies. Morrow says: a framework of boards over which can be spread light cloth or canvas to protect the plants from the weather. The top of the frame should be approximately 3 feet from the ground.

Seeds Stimulated by Rays

Seeds that refuse to sprout when planted can be roused from dormancy by soaking and then exposing them to the proper colored light for a short time. Only the longer wavelengths of light have this stimulating power, Dr. L. H. Flint, of the United States Department of Agriculture, has found.

Seeds exposed to light at the blue violet end of the spectrum refused to germinate. Even seeds that had been given the stimulating treatment with the longer wavelengths in the red end of the spectrum and then were exposed to blue or green light would not sprout. The treated seeds need not be germinated immediately. They can be dried out and planted later.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Kicking in Harness

To prevent this dangerous habit take two straps 1 1/2 inches wide with a good ring; have the straps long enough to buckle around the hind legs, one above the hock and one below. First buckle the ring in both straps; then take a stout rope, put a ring in the rope, and tie it around the breast of the collar so that the double will come back behind the belly-band and make the ring stay. Now take another piece of stout rope, tie in the ring on the hind leg, bring it up through ring at the belly-band and back to the other ring on the hind leg. Do not leave any slack for the horse or mule to get his feet over.—Wisconsin Agriculturist.

Winter Manuring Pays

Top-dressing the wheat crop with manure in mid-winter has increased the crop by six bushels to the acre, and clover hay 850 pounds at the Ohio experiment station, according to Robert M. Batten, agronomist. These results were on wheat that had received 300 pounds of superphosphate at seeding time. On land lacking a supply of phosphate, results would not be so good. Rate of application was four and one-half tons to the acre in making the test.

Buckwheat for Cows

Buckwheat can be used in feeding dairy cows up to 25 per cent of the grain ration, says a writer in Prairie Farmer. It has about the same protein content as a half-and-half mixture of ground ear corn and oats, which supplies about 85 per cent as much digestible nutrients as such a mixture. If 100 pounds of buckwheat can be purchased for less than 85 per cent of the cost of 100 pounds of the corn and oats mixture, it will pay to use it, otherwise not.

Michigan, Indian Name
The name, Michigama, is believed by some authorities to have been derived from "mich-sag-yeg-an" of the Ojibwa language. This does not seem at all unreasonable, as there are more than five thousand inland lakes in the state, to say nothing of the Great Lakes waters that come very near to surrounding it, for "mich-sag-yeg-an" means land of lakes.

Heaviest of All Dogs
The heaviest of all dogs are the St. Bernards, which range in weight from 160 to 225 pounds. The largest dogs are the Irish wolfhounds, but they do not weigh as much as the St. Bernards, being rangier and taller.

hundred millions were paid to these individuals, and later, it was made a part of their base pay. They even adjusted the pay, in some instances, of men wearing the uniform, who were assigned to certain labor occupations where they were employed with civilian employees, the soldier receiving $1.00 and the civilian laborer, from $3.00 to $12.00 per day. Some one complained that it was not fair for the soldier to receive $1.00 for the same thing that the man working along side of him was being paid from $3.00 to $12.00, so their pay was adjusted in some cases.

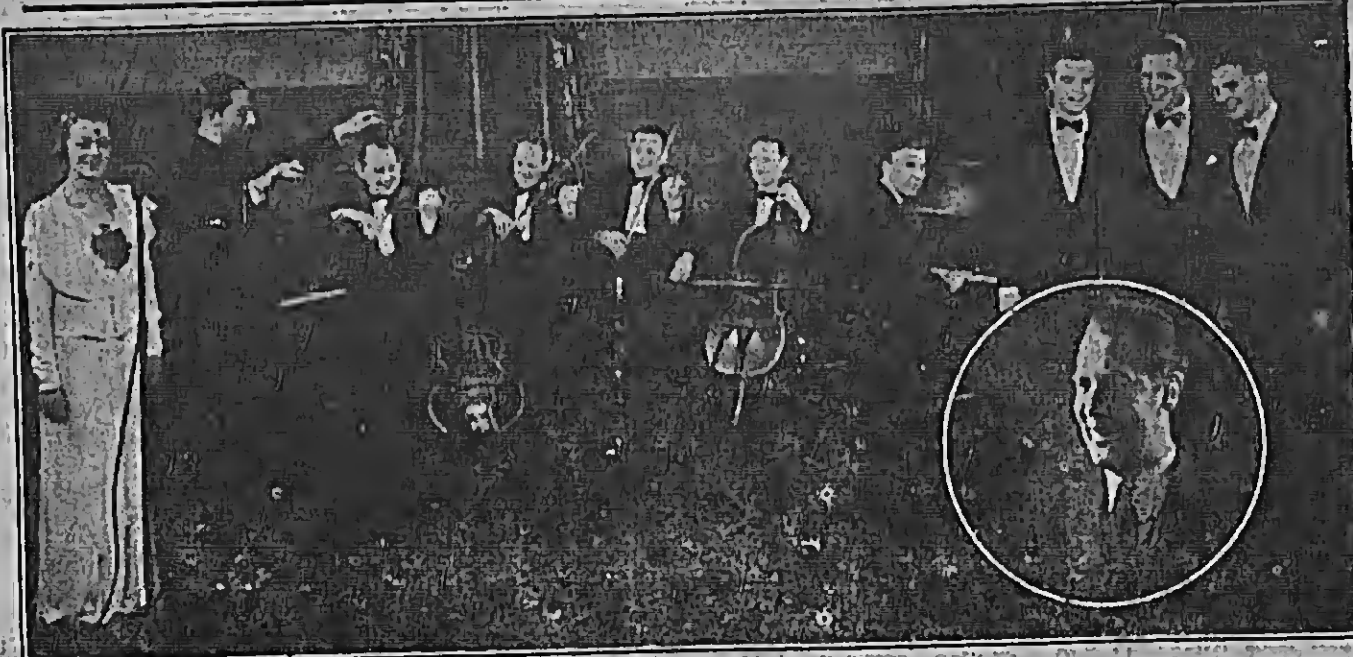

The Soldier's Pay.
The soldier received $1.00 per day for home service and $1.10 per day for overseas service. Let's see

Now the periodicals of the Nation and some of the Metropolitan Press have called us "Treasury Robbers." The veterans were patriotic in '17 and '18, as evidenced by the records of the Federal Government which show that hundreds of thousands of soldiers, willingly gave themselves, offering their lives to their country, and, too, were willing to assist in paying the cost, and they bought Liberty Bonds and from their pay, depending upon the Liberty Bond purchased, was deducted either $2.50 or $5.00 per month. Deducting $5.00 per month from the $3.20, leaves $3.20, with which they could go out and have a good time for a month. Then on Monday morning, or whatever day they chose, they could go out behind the latrine and wash their clothing as they did not have money to pay for laundry and they had to wash themselves, to be able to stand the rigid inspection. Those men were patriots! They were patriots then and they are patriots today! They served their country; their community and their nation!

New Gamble Radio Program Goes On Air

"Jack Malerich's Gamble Serenade," Gamble Stores' new series of radio programs, is now on the air. The cast, shown above, features Jack Malerich, well-known maestro of the Midwest. The program will consist of Malerich's string ensemble, organ music, and the singing Gamblers. This program will originate from the Nicollet Hotel studios of WCCO in Minneapolis each Monday and Friday at 9:30 P. M. This program is the largest of its kind originating at the present time from WCCO and will bring to radio fans some exceptionally fine vocal and instrumental numbers, both old and new.

The first is a picture of the "Old Timer" being featured on a series of programs which are broadcast from fifteen stations located throughout Gamble Stores' territory. These programs are electrically transcribed and are broadcast Thursday of each week on Kenosha, 6:00 P. M.

ply this, that inasmuch as the Federal Government has embarked upon a program of spending to bring back prosperity, there is no better method of disbursing these funds than by paying the Adjusted Service Certificates which would bring funds into every community in the nation and, if we believe the reports of the Veterans' Bureau, this money, almost in its entirety, would be used for paying the merchant, the butcher, and the baker, where it would in turn be put into circulation, causing the spending of money in the communities where this most good would be done.

"We recommend this as a relief measure as it would take thousands of thousands of men off the relief rolls of the various communities and would pay this obligation, which was solemnly confessed in 1924 by the Congress of the United States; who said inasmuch as they had paid every one else an adjustment in their pay, that surely they ought to adjust the pay of the one who had the dirtiest part of the work with the greatest possible amount of danger and who had received the least amount in return—the Soldier.

Prompt Payment for Contractors
When they acknowledged this indebtedness on the 13th of March, 1924, unlike when they settled with the Contractors, the railroads, and the civilian employees, in cash plus six per cent, they said, "You will be permitted to wait twenty years after application, the application to be made any time on or after January 1, 1925."

"Now the payment of this obligation which would distribute some two billions of dollars throughout the Nation and approximately one hundred and forty-two millions in the State of Illinois, which would assist in the bringing back of prosperity, would in no way, create a new obligation for the government, inasmuch as the obligation already exists and must be paid by the Federal Government.

Up to Congress
The Legion Bill, as introduced in Congress, is the Resolution which was passed at the Miami Convention, put in the proper legal phraseology, to permit its entry into Congress. The Legion Bill, contrary to the statements of the press, does not mention any method of payment but simply requests that these certificates be paid NOW and in cash. The Legion has previously entered Bills in Congress for our disabled, in the amount of hundreds of millions of dollars, and we have never previously, in any Bill, suggested any method of payment. That is the prerogative of Congress—the lower House of Representatives, particularly—alone.

Supports Vinson Bill
The main Bill that is in opposition at the moment, of the more than twenty-five Bills which have been entered on this subject, all of which have some monetary method, which may, or may not, be the pet scheme of its proponent, in which he may be more interested than in the payment of the Certificates, is the so-called Patman Bill, calling for an inflation of the currency. This Bill, it is true, has passed, on two or three occasions, the House of Representatives of the United States, but it has never passed the United States Senate but has in fact been defeated in that body and this is one more reason why the Legionnaires, and those interested, should stand solidly behind the passage of the Vinson Bill which leaves it to Congress to say what will be the method of payment.
